

As an amateur radio operator I am opposed to the use of Broadband over Powerline due to the interference it will cause with the amateur radio service as well as other legitimate users of the HF spectrum.